

Ferro Star

A water soluble granule of Fe EDDHA for the correction and prevention of Iron Deficiencies in all crops

How to use Fero Star 6% Fe EDDHA Soluble Granules

Dissolve the required amount of Fero Star in a convenient volume of water and apply to soil or foliage, or it can be applied via trickle irrigation.

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Wheat, barley, alfalfa: | Three applications of 150g per 1000 sqm at 10-15 day intervals. |
| Other field crops | 2-3 applications of 150g per 1000 sqm (pears, potatoes, melons, tomatoes, peanuts...etc) |
| Covered crops: | Apply 150g-200g per 1000 sqm from flowering (2-3 times/ season), Or as a foliar spray or via trickle irrigation |
| Vines, kiwi: | 25-50g per plant |
| Citrus: | Young trees 0.5kg-1.00m2 Mature trees 50-100g per tree Annual maintenance 75-100g per tree, apply post harvest or per flowering in the Spring. |
| Top fruit: | 25g-100g per tree depending on the age and size |
| Bushes, shrubs etc: | 25g-100g per plant depending on size. |
| Grass, turf: | 50g per 100m2 every 3-4 weeks |

CAUTION KEEP OUT OF REACH OF CHILDREN

The use of this material being beyond our control and involving elements of risk to human beings, animals and vegetation. We do not make any warranty express or implied, as to the effects of such use, when this product is not used accordance with the directions as stated on this label.

Made in UK for:
Nabat Agricultural & Trading Co., Ltd.
222, Al Madinah Al Munawarah Street
Jubilee Circle
Amoun Trade Center - First Floor
P.O. Box 851805
Amman 11185 Jordan
Tel. : +962 6 5514395
Fax : +962 6 5514389

Ferro Star is a registered trade mark for :
Nabat Agricultural & Trading Co., Ltd

Packing: 1 and 25 kg net